KWMU TO TAKE PART IN AN ARTS TWEET UP

90.7 KWMU, the Regional Arts Commission, the River City Professionals and the Moonrise Hotel will gather their Twitter audiences together on June 12 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. for the first-ever Arts Tweet Up held in St. Louis. Participants will meet at the Regional Arts Commission for an art opening, dedication ceremony and talk by Bill Streeter, of the video blog Lo-Fi St. Louis, on how the social networking web site Twitter can facilitate collaboration and communication in the arts community.

The event will feature paintings, collages, works on paper and an installation. Participants will interact with each other and the art work by “tweeting” their answers to questions related to several of the works of art. These “tweets” will then be displayed for everyone in attendance to view.

An after party will be held at Eclipse in the new Moonrise Hotel following the exhibit and Tweet Up.
