TIM EBY IS NAMED KWMU's NEW GENERAL MANAGER

90.7 KWMU-FM is pleased to announce that forty-eight-year-old Tim Eby has been named the new general manager of the radio station. Eby, who currently manages WOSU Public Media in Columbus, Ohio, brings more than 20 years of public radio experience to St. Louis. Eby will assume his new duties January 20, 2009.

"I am very excited about coming to KWMU and working with such a talented staff," said Eby. "There is so much happening at the station with the planned move and a new building. I'm looking forward to the opportunity to help it become a reality."

Eby, an Indiana native, has been at WOSU in Columbus since 2004. Prior to his work in Columbus, he worked at WVPE (88.1 FM) public radio in Elkhart, Indiana. Eby was named to NPR's board of directors in 2002 and served as its chair from 2004 through November 2008. He is an active leader and member of several other professional organizations including Public Radio in Mid-America and is a trustee of the NPR Foundation.

St. Louis' premier source of National Public Radio (NPR) since 1972, KWMU is a member-supported service of the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Weekly, KWMU brings nearly 180,000 listeners thoughtful, in-depth news coverage, insightful discussion and the exploration of local, regional and national issues by airing programs like Morning Edition, All Things Considered, Fresh Air, Car Talk, St. Louis on the Air and A Prairie Home Companion. KWMU, which broadcasts in HD on 90.7 and 90.7-2, reaches more than 2.4 million people in the bi-state area with a 100,000-watt signal.
