ST. LOUIS PUBLIC RADIO ANNOUNCES PROGRAM CHANGES
90.7 KWMU, THE GATEWAY 90.7 KWMU-2 AND CLASSICAL 90.7 KWMU-3

St. Louis Public Radio | 90.7 KWMU will be making the following program changes effective Saturday, January 7 and Sunday, January 8, 2012:

- Marketplace Money will air on Saturdays from 1-2 p.m. As a result of this change, Studio 360 will now air on Sundays.

Marketplace Money, hosted by Tess Vigeland, looks at the week's major national and international stories that will impact the average listener's wallet. Vigeland and her guests help listeners map out the course to financial well-being, offering advice on topics like how to pay for college and whether to buy or lease a car, as well as the individual impact of national stories.

- Studio 360 with Kurt Anderson will now air on Sundays from 1-2 p.m.

The Peabody Award-winning Studio 360 with Kurt Andersen, from PRI and WNYC, is public radio's smart and surprising guide to what's happening in pop culture and the arts. Each week, Kurt Andersen introduces people who are creating and shaping our culture, the next book for your nightstand, or the song that will change your life.

- Snap Judgment will now air on Sunday evenings from 7-8 p.m.

Snap Judgment has a raw, intimate, and musical brand of storytelling that dares listeners to see a sliver of the world through the eyes of another. Snap Judgment host Glynn Washington takes listeners on a narrative. Deejay-driven musical delivery paired with lush sound design, drops listeners into fast-paced narrative highlights stories of people from across the globe.

- The Tavis Smiley Show will now air on Sundays from 8-9 p.m.

Each week, Tavis Smiley welcomes a variety of guests to be part of a high-energy exchange of views, information, and insight. The Tavis Smiley Show offers a unique blend of news and newsmakers in expanded conversations on topics ranging from presidential power to reparations for slavery, from campaign finance reform to miscegenation in music videos -- all with a special focus on black America.

- As a result of these changes, St. Louis Public Radio will no longer air Zorba Paster on Your Health and the second hour of The Tavis Smiley Show—Smiley & West.

The Gateway 90.7 KWMU-2 will be making the following program changes effective Saturday, January 7 and Sunday, January 8, 2012:

- World Café will now air Monday – Friday from 6-8 p.m.

World Café showcases indie rock, singer-songwriters, folk, alternative country, blues, and world music. The program is produced by WXPB, Philadelphia.

- Echoes will now air Monday – Friday from 8-10 p.m.

Echoes provides an escape into a modern soundscape of evocative, ground-breaking music that crosses cultures, traditions and musical boundaries. Host John Dilberto guides listeners through the world of contemporary music, sharing his thoughts and featuring artists and events that are shaping contemporary music. Enjoy a lovely blend of instrumental, world fusion, impressionistic jazz and intimate Living Room Concerts recorded in artists' homes.

Note: Effective January 3, 2012, The Sound of Young America, which airs on Sundays at 1:00 p.m., will be called Bullseye.

Classical 90.7 KWMU-3 will be making the following program changes effective Saturday, January 7 and Sunday, January 8, 2012:

- Sunday Baroque will now air on Sundays from 8 a.m.-12 p.m.

Sunday Baroque is a celebration of beloved and appealing music from the baroque era (1600-1750) and the years leading up to it. The music you'll hear includes: Antonio Vivaldi's Four Seasons Concertos, George Frideric Handel's Music for the Royal Fireworks and Water Music Suites, and Johann Sebastian Bach's Brandenburg Concertos. You'll hear their tuneful and lively music – and music by their talented contemporaries and predecessors – as part of the mix of familiar favorites and new surprises. Sunday Baroque offers great performances of their work by yesterday and today's best performers. Fresh and inviting, genial and inspiring, and often surprisingly modern sounding, it's the perfect accompaniment for this unique day of the week, whether you're sleeping in, joining family and friends for a leisurely brunch, or relaxing alone with the Sunday paper and a cup of coffee. Host Suzanne Bona has been a classical music broadcaster since 1987 and is professional, classically trained flutist.
