St. Louis Public Radio & Quincy Public Radio to Air the Republican and Democratic National Conventions

St. Louis Public Radio 90.7 KWMU and Quincy Public Radio 90.3 WQUB will air live NPR coverage of the Republican National Convention from Tampa, Florida, Monday, August 27 through Thursday, August 30 and the Democratic National Convention from Charlotte, North Carolina, Tuesday, September 4 through Thursday, September 6. Coverage for both conventions will be from 7 – 10 p.m. CST.

Jennifer Ludden will host from NPR headquarters in Washington, DC. The broadcast will include selected podium speeches; interviews with newsmakers; and analysis from NPR's Senior Washington Editor Ron Elving and NPR National Political Correspondent Mara Liasson, as well as EJ Dionne of The Washington Post and Matt Continetti of the Washington Free Beacon. Additionally, NPR will have two reporters on the floor of each convention (Debbie Elliott and Jeff Brady at the Republican Convention and Debbie Elliott and Sonari Ginton at the Democratic Convention) to talk to delegates and newsmakers, and to provide color.
